Where Caro- li- nes Loft- y Pine trees Pierce the South- ern blue.

Proud- Ly stands our Al- ma Ma- ter Cou- rd- geous, strong and true.

Black and gold float on for- ev- er, Sym- bol of Loy- al ty,

Pem- broke State, our Al- ma Ma- ter, Hail to p. s. c.!

2. Hail to thee, our Alma Mater!
 Guardian of our youth
 Ever lead thy children onward
 Into light and truth;
 Unborn youth will take our places
 To praise thee endlessly,
 Pembroke State, our Alma Mater,
 Hail to P. S. C.!

3. 'Neath thy ever verdant pine trees
 We rally to thy call,
 Ever loyal sons and daughters -
 Ambassadors, we all -
 Bound by ties of love and service
 Friendship and loyalty,
 Pembroke State, our Alma Mater,
 Hail to P. S. C.!

4. Raise the chorus, blend the voices,
 Let the echoes ring
 To our loving foster parent
 Loudly praises sing;
 Swell the chorus 'till it reaches
 On through eternity
 Pembroke State, our Alma Mater,
 Hail to P. S. C.!

"The past, like an inspired rhapsodist, fills the theater of everlasting generations with her harmony."

Through The Eyes of The Indianhead

In our quest for a theme for the 1959 INDIANHEAD we were attracted to the Daniel Boone Trail Marker at the entrance of the campus. The Indian head on the front of this great stone arrowhead, has become a symbol of the spirit of P. S. C.

If this INDIANHEAD could only speak, what stories it could weave of the fascinating story of our college--the stirring dreams, growing inspirations, high ambitions, huge endeavors, varied social activities, many campus changes, rapid expansions, insatiable thirst for knowledge, yes, and even golden romance---all these and more, the INDIANHEAD could relate.

With this in mind, we have tried to capture during 1958-59 memories as seen THROUGH THE EYES OF THE INDIANHEAD.

President's Message

I find that the theme of the 1959 Indianhead, "Through the Eyes of the Indianhead," is most conducive to both reflection and projection in these changing times. Not only does it raise the quantitatively oriented questions of "Where have we been?" and "Where are we going?" But in addition, in a mutilation of Shakespeare's comment upon puns, it could be said to raise the qualitative question of "To what has, is, and will the Indianhead be willing to say its "ayes?"

The Indianhead is not only the College Yearbook; it is the symbol of the institution. If it were within my command to bring two characteristics to this symbolism, and thus to the institution for which it stands, my choices would be "A love of all excellence," and "An understanding of the nature of excellence."

Pembroke State College will have reached academic maturity when all the members of its community have developed the sensuous keenness and the emotional vigor to rigorously pursue these goals. Through the Eyes of the Indianhead, and through the eyes of each of us, may the inherent values soon be seen.

Walter J. Gale
President
Pembroke State College

Students have access to Library stacks

The Reader's Guide to Periodicals directs students to correct files to secure information from back issues of magazines and newspapers.

Footsteps Leading To and From The Library

One of the most delightful places on the college campus is the Main Reading Room with its walls lined with reference books, its many comfortable chairs and tables, its studious atmosphere—all of which are conducive to effective study.

The stacks on the ground floor of Pembroke State College Library contain over 26,700 volumes.

Miss Marjorie Kanable,
Librarian, and Miss Juanita
Cwendine, Assistant Librarian,
at the charging desk.

Students relax in the Reading Room.

The Wesley Fellowship was first organized here on the campus in November, 1940, when Dr. Owens Hands Brown was acting President of Pembroke State College. The first president of the W. F. was Mr. Danford Dial. From this date until the present time the W. F. has been on our campus to promote Christian fellowship and provide social activities for the students.

The W. F. takes pride in making and carrying out worth-while activities during the school term. Every year, in order to make these plans, the W. F. and B. S. U. hold a Retreat to co-ordinate the year's activities. At the Retreat we all have fellowship and fun and still find time to plan for the coming year. Some of the activities are held jointly, but the individual organization sponsors others.

The program of the W. F. varies according to the needs of the students as the program committee sees fit. There are many types of programs including movies, plays, panel discussions and speakers. These programs are planned for student participation.

Special events to which the W. F.'ers look forward are the conferences, college exchange programs, and Christmas caroling. Those attending the programs and conferences come back being spiritually revived and with many new ideas, also, those memories will remain with them throughout life.

The Wesley Fellowship with the Methodist Church and other churches of the community are at work on the campus and in the community. The purpose is to help provide the spiritual, moral, and social needs of our students on the campus and to train the students to be better leaders in the community and to take an active part wherever they may be.

Alpha Phi Omega was first introduced to the Pembroke State College campus early in the fall semester of 1958. Since that time Alpha Phi Omega has moved into the spotlight of campus life with its numerous and varied projects. The first major A. Phi O. project was a Christmas Toy Drive, in conjunction with the City Fire Department, for the benefit of needy children in and around the Pembroke area. Alpha Phi Omega has taken charge of the campus blood drive, the Easter Seal drive and has accepted many other projects among which are the organization of a college dance band, an exhibition team of Indian dancers, and the supplementing of campus social life.

Membership in the fraternal organization is open to any male student who has had previous training in Scouting and who has a desire to render service through a national service fraternity. Visitors are welcomed to all open meetings.

Art Club

Art reflects the culture of the community, city, state and country, therefore, care should be taken to bring out the best because of the influence it will have on others.

In the past, the Art Club has visited art galleries and many other places of interest. Through these efforts it has enabled members to be more able to lecture at other clubs, schools, and community activities. These lectures are of great value since the collection of pictures, slides and other sources of information will be available for future usage.

"Ye say they all have passed away,
That noble race and brave;
That their light canoes have vanished
From off the crested wave;
That mid the forests where they roamed
There rings no hunter's shouts;
But their name is on your waters;
Ye may not wash it out."

Lydia Hurnly Sigourney, Indian Names

"Nothing is left behind except a majestic memory."
